

The search engines below are comprehensive, allowing students to search for thousands of awards in one location. It is critical to also visit the scholarship page of the website for the post-secondary institution you will be attending.

_____ – This website contains Veterans' Awards which can be designated by a Canadian Armed Forces Veteran to a relative, as well as Employer Sponsored Awards and a number of University and College awards

_____ – Students can search for scholarships by province or program.

_____ – Information is provided on financial aid for students studying internationally.

_____ – Maclean's, Canada's national news magazine, enables students to search for scholarships across Canada.

_____ – Each monthly edition of Student Career News contains a list of upcoming awards and scholarships.

_____ – This is the Saskatchewan scholarship section, including public and private organizations, on the StudentScholarships.org website.

_____ – This is Canada's most comprehensive scholarship website. Information is available on scholarships, bursaries, grants, student loans, applications, and budget planning.

The search engines below are specific and apply to a narrow group of students, categorized by such things as ancestry, post-secondary program and parent occupation.

_____ – This search tool provides information on 766 bursaries, scholarships, and incentives for aboriginal students across Canada

_____ – This website provides a list of scholarships for dependents of Canadian Forces personnel.

_____ - Scholarships, grants, awards and bursaries specifically for post-secondary students with disabilities.

