Schedule "B"
Work-Based Learning Consent and Agreement

Work-based learning is a school program whereby students practice theory and skills learned in school by working with a local employer. Students are not paid and may be placed with more than one local employer.

Students participating in the program are covered under the provincial workers' compensation system during the time spent in the work-based learning component of their course.

Workers' compensation is a collective liability no-fault protection plan for workers. Students are entitled to the benefits that are available to workers who are normally covered by the Workers' Compensation Act, 1979.

Employers and their workers who participate in work-based learning assignment cannot be sued for injuries which occur to students arising out of and in the course of employment.
